Description

We have a wonderful oil painting by Hermann Ziebland German genre painter (1853-1896). Ziebland was the son of an inspector and engineer and a great-nephew of the architect and builder Georg Friedrich Ziebland. He first attended the Latin school and a high school and studied from 1870 to 1874 at the arts and crafts school and then from February 21, 1874 at the Royal Academy of Arts in Munich under Ludwig von Löfftz, Wilhelm Diez and Wilhelm Lindenschmit the Younger. He went on study trips to Italy. He showed his works at art exhibitions in Dresden and Munich. The reproductions of his pictures appeared in illustrated magazines such as Universum. Illustrated magazine for the German family. Rudolf Wimmer was one of his students. Ziebland died at the age of 43 after a long illness. Superb painting in wonderful untouched condition ready to hang in the home. Frame can do with minor touching up which is included in the asking price. Delivery within UK is also included in the price. If you require a shipping quote please do enquire. Thank you for looking and if you require any further information please ask.
