Description

Of outstanding quality, a pair of English, silver plated three branch candelabra with removable sconces. Each is decorated all over with raised scroll work and shells. The three branch top may be separated from the main stem to create a pair of candlesticks. The felt on the base is original. When we came across them they were black with age and, after cleaning, we found the condition to be amazing. It's likely they were put in a cupboard and only brought out on special occasions! We can deliver free of charge in UK mainland and can calculate the cost for international delivery. Payment by bank transfer, PayPal and card via telephone
