Description

An early 19th century marble-topped pedestal table*; the circular white marble top inlaid with a band of sixteen panels of specimen hardstones surrounding a central feature of an exotic bird standing on a classical vase. The rosewood stand with a lobed baluster shaft on a circular dished platform with four carved leafy feet. Circa 1830

* The style of the stand shows similarities to published designs of W. Smee & Sons. John Beazor Antiques is a family firm, established in 1875 and based in Cambridge since 1940. We are a traditional antiques shop, but very much in the 21st century. We deal in 18th and early 19th century furniture, barometers and clocks. We choose our stock for its originality and for the quality of its colour, patination and design. We are members of the BADA. We do not exhibit at fairs preferring to deal from our Cambridge shop where we hold Open Weekends from time to time.
