Description

A fine quality glazed cabinet, dating to around 1900. Lovely light coloured mahogany, with brass galleried top over decorative marquetry inlaid frieze, this sits above a central marquetry inlaid door flanked either side by 2 concave shaped glass doors. The glass cabinets on either side have been recently lined with an oyster coloured crushed velvet material and hold 2 shaped glass shelves in each. The central cupboard holds a fixed shelf inside and has a storage compartment underneath. Beautifully decorated with intricate marquetry inlay displaying harebells, swags and bows. Raised on 6 tapering square legs with spade feet. W 131cm/51.5" D 39.5cm/15.5" H 176.5cm/69.5"
