Description

A truly stunning table top display case in coloured wood that dates to the 1930's. It is in magnificent original condition with its' original glass panels, shelves and handle. Has a really unusual interior with the lower display shelves offset and supported by a strut which matches the carcass. The carcass itself is constructed in oak which has been stained and polished in three colours which give it a real Art Deco lookvery indicative of the period. Measures 21 inches wide, 9 inches deep and 15 1/2 inches high. A fabulous display case that would grace a period or contemporary home and could be used to display watches, jewellery or objet d'arts.
