Description

This is a beautiful antique William IV flame mahogany extending dining table, circa 1835 in date. This amazing table can seat eight people in comfort and has been hand-crafted from beautiful solid flame mahogany. The beautifully figured flame mahogany top is rectangular with rounded corners and has a leaf which can be added or removed as required to suit the occasion. The leaf can be easily removed and stored away when not required. The table is raised on four hand carved inverted tulip and turned legs that terminate in their original brass and porcelain cup castors. The chairs shown in the photographs are not included in the price but are available if required, we have various sets of chairs in stock that would suit this table. This stunning dining table will stand out in your dining room and will definitely become a key piece in your furnishing collection. Condition: In excellent condition having been beautifully cleaned, polished and waxed in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation.
