Description

This is a splendid antique Waterford cut crystal vase, circa 1900 in date. This wonderful vase has a delightful sloping neck which is ideal for almost any floral arrangement, while the vase itself boasts stability and comforting weight. It features beautiful relief diamonds motifs throughout the body. It is supported by a round base. It is a highly decorative cut crystal vase ready to beautifully display your flowers. It also looks beautiful when empty as the distinctive cut gives it a lovely sparkle. Condition: In excellent condition, please see photos for confirmation.
