Description

Antique rustic oak farmhouse dresser This Antique rustic oak farmhouse dresser was made circa 1820. The rustic feel of this dresser base makes this ideal for an area where you wish to add some extra character. It shows all the 200 years of service it has provided its owners. This dresser would originally have been the centre piece of a kitchen, being the focal point of life in the home. Lovingly looked after and with a nut colour and a deep patina, showing its honourable scars of its life. It has 2 drawers with brass plate handles, below these is the shaped apron. The pot-board, with the good wide Elm boards each selected to show the timbers beauty. The fine turned legs to the front and bracket feet cut in the plinth kick board. Imagine this Antique farmhouse dresser in your home and the character it will give your home. You will find it hard not to run your fingers along the tactile surface as you walk by. 156cms long 61 1/2ins 42cms deep 16ins 78cms high 30 3/4ins All Measurements are as accurate as possible.
