Description

Hallmarked for London 1908 this sword stick is marked for Julius Klinkhardt of Chandos Street, London WC, a specialist stick maker. The blade is a round thrusting point and is housed in a very thin malacca haft, the handle is tortoiseshell with silver collars and end caps and the ferrule is steel and brass. This is a very elegant cane and feels it would be appropriate if carried when in white tie evening dress with a top hat and a cape! it is in excellent condition. Size: Length - 35.75" (91cm) Blade Length - 23.5" (59.5cm)
