Description

A very unusual pair of high quality silver bowls or salts. Made in London in 1809 by Thomas Robins. They are beautifully gilded inside and have a full set of hallmarks underneath. They are in excellent condition with no damage or repairs. They would make excellent dishes for servicing nuts or sweets. Each one has four lions paw feet and beaded rims. Stunning pieces of superb quality George III silver by a little known silversmith Thomas Robins. WEIGHT; 330 grams or 11 ozst approx. Free delivery in the UK. Payment by bank transfer, over the phone, PayPal or cleared cheque.
