Description

This 16th century oak panel was removed from an Oxford College during restoration many years ago. The gothic tracery is finely carved and the colour is rich and deep. There is some loss, this is commensurate with age and is clearly shown in the photographs. The historic woodworm has been thoroughly treated. This panel has been part of a private collection for over fifty years. c. 1570 Code: CMT 455 Height: 18" 46 cm Width: 6.5" 17 cm
