Description

Fine George III period rolled paper tea caddy of hexagonal form, in remarkably fine condition. Glazed panels with three engravings surrounded by an elaborate frame of gilded cut and rolled paper. The framing of the decoration is sparkly mica granules all within a sycamore fine black and white banding throughout. Interior with its original fitted lid; the handles are original and silver. An exceptional example. Circa 1790 John Beazor Antiques is a family firm, established in 1875 and based in Cambridge since 1940. We are a traditional antiques shop, but very much in the 21st century. We deal in 18th and early 19th century furniture, barometers and clocks. We choose our stock for its originality and for the quality of its colour, patination and design. We are members of the BADA. We do not exhibit at fairs preferring to deal from our Cambridge shop where we hold Open Weekends from time to time.
