Description

Superb Edwardian carved oak arm chair with polished seat in excellent solid condition. The back rest has a beautifully shaped carved top rail and panel that leads down to square back legs. The two arms are shaped for comfort and sit on two turned uprights leading down to turned and block legs united by square stretchers. It is a fabulous colour with amazing patina which can only be achieved through years of love and use. Like all antique furniture there are some imperfections however these only add to this fantastic looking chair. Seat height 45cm
