Description

Rare large 10 seater antique George III oval quality mahogany dining table having a rare 7 feet oval figured mahogany tilt top crossbanded in satinwood supported on a fabulous turned pedestal column standing on four splayed inlaid mahogany sabra legs with original brass cup castors. An incredible example of the highest quality, even though it does not display a maker's mark it was most certainly crafted by a leading cabinet maker of the period, the quality of the timber and rare size suggest it was a commissioned piece. A fabulous showcase piece. Dimensions: Height 75 cm (29.52 in) Width 213 cm (83.85 in) Depth 140 cm (55.11 in) Dated 1800

Internal Ref: 2170
