Description

-Welcome to Mersham Manor Antiques- A superb quality Victorian mahogany tambour roll top desk, beautifully crafted in an unusual and very pleasing design. C.1880. This very stylish desk has two pedestals, which incorporate seven drawers, with a central eighth drawer, which is flanked by two pull-out slides, making extra practical useable space. The drawer handles are particularly lovely, which are turned ebony centred with bone, which contrasts beautifully. The drawers are hardwood lined and of dove-tail construction. The tambour roll-top glides smoothly and effortlessly open to reveal a large pull-out writing area, featuring a brand new elegantly gold tooled leather writing surface, in antique tan. With many pigeon holes and storage compartments to the back. The desk stands on elegant splayed bracket feet. Can separate in to two sections for ease of moving. A good heavy solid, strong and sturdy desk of excellent quality. The dimensions are. Height overall -100cm. Height to top of desk-79.2cm Height to underside of writing surface-77.5cm. Depth overall-67cm. Depth of desk top writing area-55cm Width overall-121cm Width of desk top writing area-111.3cm W...
