Description

This is an antique verger's stool. An English, oak side or hall stool with ecclesiastical taste, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900. Pleasingly petite and with a delightful carved appearance. Displays a desirable aged patina and in very good order. Select oak stocks present warm caramel hues. Fine figuring throughout with wisps of medullary rays. Fascinating carved squab with carry handle to centre. Circular medallion surrounds the handle, accentuated with foliate motif. Stout block shoulders frame shaped scroll aprons to each side. Standing upon a quartet of bun feet, united with stretcher rails. This is a charming antique verger's stool, with a useful carved carry handle and appealing colour. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home.
