Description

Original 19th Century French Burr Walnut Writing Cupboard. A fine antique cupboard incorporating a pull-out writing surface with many uses. We bring to you this marvellous fine quality 19th century French writing table in Walnut believed to be made around C1880. This original cupboard features burr Walnut veneer to the top, drawer and door fronts which is framed by Walnut parquetry veneer in the typical French style. The cupboard unusually features a pull out red baize covered standing height (or tall bar stool) writing surface above its single drawer which is also red baize lined and complete with its original ornate brass dropper handle, original working lock complete with its original key. Below the drawer is a simple moulding which partitions the cupboard compartment. The twin cupboard doors are exquisitely crafted with burr walnut centres framed by moulding and parquetry veneer to surround. Flanking the beautiful doors either side are finely carved corbels tied together with fluted pillars between embellished by 4 beveled plaques on each corner of the frontage. Unlocking the doors and opening reveals a large cupboard compartment with a central shelf which is rem...
