Description

Very elegant Georgian oak open dresser base from the Welsh/Cheshire borders c.1800. Solid oak top with mahogany crossbanded border and fine ogee moulded edge. Over three drawers, the solid oak drawer fronts also crossbanded and with cockbeaded edges and attractive period replacement brass handles. Straight apron below the drawers also crossbanded along the bottom edge, continued on the sides. Raised on slim tapering square front legs with lovely moulded detail to the foot. Oak sides and ash drawer linings. Excellent colour and condition, restored cleaned and waxed in our workshops.
