Description

A beautifully made "pressed" Horn Gentleman's Snuff Box....very interesting scene on the lid...it shows a soldier upon horseback with his pistol drawn, pointing it at a group of people, who look like Pirates....one with a "peg" leg playing a fiddle and one leading a bear.....the underneath is also nicely decorated with a central flower motif....the box is in superb condition with no visible damage and is signed Bradwell.....Thomas Bradwell is listed in a local Sheffield Directory of 1821 as a die-sinker, engraver and castor of Typographic Ornaments at Bridgehouses. English. C1800-30. From a private collection of Brian Hawtin - No.309

Internal Ref: MS 7903
