Description

This wonderful hand stiched leather cased hunting flask dates to the Edwardian period. It contains a hand blown cut glass flask with hinged plated top, this fits neatly inside five Regent plated cups. The cups have slight signs of wear commensurate with age. The leather has very slight staining under lid (not particularly noticeable), but otherwise in very good condition, no loose stitching. This is a wonderful quality item, bourne out by the fact it is by Goldsmiths and Silversmiths Comoany, 112 Regent Street. W1
