

SA1043768

Historial Pastime. A New Game of the History of England 1831

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA1043768*Date of manufacture: Regency

Dimensions

Height = 49 cm (19.3")

Depth = 3 cm (1.2")

Description

HISTORICAL PASTIME. A NEW GAME OF THE HISTORY OF ENGLAND, Published by E. Wallis, 42, Skinner Street, Snow Hill, circa 1831. A rare, hand coloured, historical race game with 133 playing spaces numbered in a clockwise direction from the Battle of Hastings [1066] to the death of Queen Caroline [1821]. Centred with a portrait of William IV. Hand coloured sheet split into 12 sections mounted on linen, published by E. Wallis, 42, Skinner Street, Snow Hill, circa 1831. A game devised to educate young children in some of the basic facts of English history. First published 1803 it was revised with each subsequent monarch until Queen Victoria. Within a glazed frame.

Seller Details

Hand of Glory

Hand of Glory Antiques 34 Market Place Chippenham Wiltshire
SN15 3HP United Kingdom

Tel: 07867 305451 or 01249 447478

International Tel: +44 7867 305451 or +44 1249 447478