Description

Pair of late C19th Chinese Qing Dynasty carved hardwood stands with inset rouge marble tops. Heavily carved pair of 'hongmu' stands or tables of usual 'waisted' shape and design. Raised on four carved and shaped legs joined by stretchers, with carved and pierced friezes. The circular tops with carved beaded edges and with inset rouge marble panels. In excellent original condition having a rich colour and patina with no breaks or repairs. A stylish pair of tables of practical scale and proportions for use as drinks or end tables to provide symmetry and add an exotic oriental accent to an interior scheme.
