Description

Early 20th Century Double Sided Toleware French Dentists Trade Sign An original untouched example of an early 20th Century toleware double sided French dentists trade sign. This item would have been attached to a large wall bracket mount at some point. It's angled at a 30-degree mounted point as shown and made from 2 separate oval sheets, with faded red coloured surface and hand painted 3-D text on both sides stating VVE Murat Dentiste. Dimensions in inches: H 27" x W 22" x D 14" Age: Early 20th Century Origin: Paris (France) Condition: Aged Chain NOT included Aged wear and tear across all the surfaces due to obvious use over the years and being kept outside. Rust on the metal surfaces, with chips and loss of painted detail as shown. The main damage is across the "U" lettering. The inside of the sign is also rusty and untouched. This is a very old item that's made from metal, and we have tried to show all the condition as best as possible, please expect imperfections as shown. We strongly suggest reviewing all the photos provided as part of this advert and propose questions where sections are unclear to avoid disappointment upon purchase. A direct message usually ...
