Description

This is a pair of antique saddle racks. An English, cast iron stable or outdoor equestrian tack rest, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900. Traditional saddle racks with an appealing weathered finish. Displaying a desirable aged patina with time worn appearance. Quality cast iron in patinated finish with nicely rounded forms. Offers a pair of under hook prongs - ideal for riding crops. Also useful in a hallway for hanging scarves and cloaks. Quintet of mounting points for ease of hanging. Maker's mark to the rear for a K&CoW with serial number. This is a delightful pair of antique saddle racks, with a pleasingly aged appearance. Delivered ready to use.
