Description

A late C19th harlequin (matched) set of 4 Lancashire country dining chairs. These chairs constructed in solid oak, elm and ash feature a double row spindle back with yoke top rail. Rush woven seats, raised on turned front legs with off-set bun feet, supported by stretchers. An attractive, high quality, well presented, matched set of Lancashire country chairs. In good original condition and ready for use. Dimensions: These chairs measures approximately 93.25 cm (36.75") tall, 48cm (19") wide, and 44.5 cm (17.5") deep. The seat height is approximately 44 cm (17.25). Condition: Please see the pictures for details of the items condition. - These chairs are in a good and original condition commensurate with its age. Some odd minor marks and blemishes. A few old and extinct worm holes, typical of elm antique furniture, that does not affect the sturdiness of the chair in any way, and now treated as way of precaution. No loose joints. No obvious signs of damage or repairs. A few frayed strands of rush on a couple of the chairs, plus a little surface wear, otherwise the seats are still very good. A little charming aged wear to the frames. Good colour, polish and patina. Very...
