Description

An Edwardian period, mahogany inlaid with leather inset top, small pedestal writing desk, Circa 1905. This desk features an original gilt and tooled border, red leather hide skiver, in the inverted breakfront top. Bordered with satinwood and ebony band, and complete with reeded edge. Over twin pedestals with bank of four drawers, all graduated in height, with matching inlaid banding, brass pull handles, original locks with working key and brass escutcheons. Central knee hole with further drawer, complete with inlaid spandrels. The pedestals raised on aproned bases with reeded edge tops. Sat on original castors. Solid oak drawer linings. Considerably heavy for its size and very well made. This desk is very well presented. An attractive, high quality desk, of lovely small proportions. In very good working condition, serviced, cleaned and waxed, now very much ready for use. Dimensions: This desk measures approximately 72.25 cm (28.5") tall, 99 cm (39") wide, and 59 cm (23.25") deep. The knee hole measures 42 cm (16.5") wide and 55.75 cm (22") tall. Condition: Please see the pictures for details of the items condition. - This desk is in a good condition, commensurate with...
