Description

A nicely turned four section rosewood ladies glove powderer of an attractive design, having a top with seven holes that unscrews from the turned column, which also unscrews from the circular main body that holds the powder. The base also unscrews, and is stamped with a crown above the letters V.R. for Queen Victoria....it has gained a very good colour and patina from constant use and is in excellent condition. English. C1840-60.
