Description

A late 19th Century German solid silver jardiniere of oval form with classical swag and column decoration. A fantastic quality piece with twin linked handles, lion paw feet and a vacant cartouche to the centre. The blue glass liner is original and in perfect condition. Overall, the piece is in absolutely perfect condition with the 800 silver mark and a makers mark showing a crown over the letters SR and likely to be Simon Roseau. This is a beautiful and classical piece, heavy and substantial. The silver alone weighs 1kg. We can deliver free of charge in UK mainland and can calculate the cost for International delivery. Payment by bank transfer, PayPal or card via telephone.
