Description

~ French - Circa 1880 ~ ~~ Excellent condition, fully overhauled ~~ A beautiful antique French clock of exquisite Meissen style porcelain in the Louis XV Rococo style. The case is of waisted shape with bold scrolls sitting upon a base. Three charming putti hold fine floral swags and the case is profusely decorated with applied flowers, beautifully formed and painted. The front of the clock is formed as open lattice to allow a glimpse of the pendulum gently swinging within. The porcelain is marked with an imitation Meissen mark and is by one of several French makers imitating Meissen at the time. The dial is porcelain enamel with its original finely fretted gilt hands and convex bezel. The rear door is glazed with frosted glass. The French movement is of high quality and is in excellent clean and running condition having been fully overhauled by our clockmaker. Pendulum is a replacement. It runs for 8 days and strikes the hours and halves on a bell. We have a video of the clock, please ask and we will send you a link, or paste this link into your browser: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=KkWbBqUOWCU&t=11s>
Condition of the case is excellent, porcelain has some small lo...
