Description

A stunning modernist circular cocktail tray designed by the world famous Lino Sabattini for famous Orfevriere Christofle, a magical combination of quality and minimalist design. Just back from our silversmith's workshop where it has been professionally cleaned and polished, restoring it to it's former glory, minor wear commensurate with age. Highly collectable and sought-after in excellent condition measuring 14" in diameter x 3/4" tall. Lino Sabattini was the preeminent figure in modern Italian silver and metalware design. His expansive and diverse body of work is marked by its strength and boldness, whether in dynamic forms that suggest the thrust and power of Italian Futurist art and design or light and curvaceous biomorphic serveware and decorative objects. Sabattini was largely self-taught as a designer. Born in the northern Italian town of Correggio, he learned metalsmithing techniques while working in the studio of a maker of brass tableware. He also served as an apprentice of sorts to the expatriate German ceramist Roland Hettner, who taught Sabattini about fluidity of form and showed him how shapes derive from the behavior of materials. At age 30, Sabattini...
