Description

A large antique pine cupboard dating back to around 1900. It features a single door that opens from left to right and is currently equipped with three shelves inside. The internal depth is 15", making it ideal for hanging very small items. This cupboard could serve well as a children's wardrobe. If needed, we are happy to customise it by adding a rail at the top for your convenience. Please be aware that this cupboard does not disassemble for delivery, so it's essential to carefully assess access points, especially if navigating stairs or sharp corners. Presently, the cupboard is in its natural bare wood state. It is available for purchase as is, priced at £710. Alternatively, you can opt to have it waxed for a total of £797. Dimensions are height 66.5", width 39.5", depth 20", internal depth of 15".

Internal Ref: B0205D
