Description

Rare small deringer pistol, fully stamped for the Remington Arms co. Much loved by gamblers and ladies as it is small and easy to conceal, also used by cowboys and lawmen as an extra hidden weapon. This is an original pistol circa 1900-1910 using the now obsolete rimfire mechanism which is legal to buy sell and own. The gun is in perfect working order and very good condition. This is an excellent example of a rare collectors item.
