Description

An excellent representation of a German pine dresser from the 1930s, featuring three glazed doors in the upper section (including a 'bi-fold' door on the right), equipped with an interior shelf. The base section includes two drawers, each adorned with a brass handle, positioned above two doors with an internal shelf. Presently in its natural state, having recently undergone paint stripping, this dresser is in remarkably good condition given its age. It is available for purchase in bare wood for £800 or can be waxed for £897. Dimensions: Overall Height: 75" Base Height: 35" Width: 49" Base Depth: 22"

Internal Ref: B0700E
