SoldItem Reference: SA104576*Date of manufacture: 1910

Description

A beautiful and very usable pair of late Victorian / Edwardian sauce boats made from silver, each a very slightly different shape, presumably for different types of sauce. They stand on the most elegant legs with the rims decorated with an attractive cast grape & vine decoration. The underside of each is signed by Alexander Scott, which was a Scottish jeweller based in Glasgow, this piece dates to around 1900, late Victorian or Edwardian. A real classic to adorn your dining table. Excellent condition measuring 7 1/2" x 3 3/4". ———— FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From London, England
