Description

A Rare Georgian 2 tier Rosewood What Not. A Lovely Rosewood What Not With Drawer. We bring to you this outstanding late Georgian rosewood 2 tier What Not believed to be made around C1800. This absolutely stunning What Not is in fantastic original condition which we have just enhanced by sympathetically cleaning and waxing to a lovely sheen. The What Not has 2 display shelves supported by finely turned typical Georgian style rosewood upright pillars and finishes to 4 turned rosewood legs standing on its original high quality solid brass 'Cope's Patent' cup castors. The lowest shelf features a smoothly working finely constructed dovetailed drawer complete with its original finely turned knobs. The display stand is made of the highest quality, there is no movement or play in any of the joints and the tops are flat without bowing or twisting. Please note this item is in beautiful condition for its age as shown in the photographs below however being an antique there are some small repairs and imperfections here and there. However, we feel that these points are which adds charm and character to a piece. Dimensions Height to top: 600mm Height to lower shelf: 270mm Width...
