Description

Victorian inlaid walnut credenza This Victorian inlaid walnut credenza was made circa 1870. The central inlaid panel door opens to reveal the lined interior, to each side of the door are turned columns that are inlaid and having gilt brass mounts. To each end is a bow glazed door that opens to give you access to the shelves inside. Victorian inlaid walnut credenzas are a lovely piece to furnish a home and give a great presence to a room or hallway where you can display your precious items but also have the super storage space in the cupboard. We recently sold a credenza that is now a gin palace with the glasses inside the cupboard and gins displayed in the cabinets, it does look incredible. Imagine enjoying this fabulous credenza in your home, and the pleasure it will give you. 165cms wide 65ins 44cms deep 17 1/2ins 102cms high 40ins All Measurements are as accurate as possible.
