Description

19th century bronze group of two standing and sitting hares by French animalier sculptor Alfred Dubucand (1823-1894). Finely detailed bronze with good dark brown patination. Signature 'DUBUCAND' incised to base. Height: 4.5inches. Foundry stamp on underside 'E V 1245'. Alfred Dubucand was born in paris in 1828. He was a skilled animalier sculptor producing well modelled small groups of animals and occasionally equestrian groups. He was known for the realistic modelling of his subjects giving the appearance of life and movement. Literature: Christopher Payne 'Animals in Bronze' 1986.
