Description

1 Fine British Work Of Art Oil Painting Portrait Of "Kim Bay Hunter Horse By Frances Mabel Hollams. Subject Equine horse study portrait of a brown bay hunter who's name was "Kim", facing right in full side profile wearing reins, saddle has been taken off and you can see the fine coat colour is lighter where the saddle would of gone. Title "Kim" Oil on board panel. Set in such a traditional oak frame with a glass cover. Circa early 20th century dated. This painting is signed bottom right F.M Hollams by the well known British animal and equine artist Frances Mabel Hollams with artist biography verso. This is a fine example of her work. Provenance from a Fine Art auction & museum label verso & now in the collection of Cheshire Antiques Consultant.. Frances Mabel Hollams (1877-1963), who signed her works F.M. Hollams, was a popular British painter of horses and dogs, active in the first three decades of the 20th century. She is noted for her technique of painting on wood panel with no background, so that the grain of the wood is visible. Growing up at Dene Park in Shipbourne she later moved to Puttenden Manor near the hamlet of Dunks Green. Mabel studied under the artist Fran...
