Description

A large Victorian pine dresser base dating from the late 19th Century. It has three drawers above two cupboard doors which open to a shelved interior. The drawers have turned wooden knobs which match the knobs on the cupboards and each cupboard has a brass latch to keep it closed. It is a good quality piece with a thick planked top and panelled sides. It is in good condition for its age and the pine has mellowed to a lovely colour. There are signs of age and use, some minor marks, knocks and stains but no major damages and it has a nice aged patina. There have been some old repairs over the years, mainly towards the back (see photos), but nothing untoward. The back of the dresser has been replaced but it still displays well and is strong and sturdy. It has been given a clean and gentle polish and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
