Description

A superb Victorian silver gilt scent bottle and pill box combination. The body is of wrythen and lobed form with a hinged panel to the front, opening to reveal a reserve for pills or comfits. There is a hinged and domed lid to the top, with an internal cork seal and this superior piece is richly gilded inside and out. A most unusual, dual purpose collector's piece and a great gift idea, both decorative and usable. Dimensions below. Postage and packing £10.00 UK £18.00 Europe £22.00 Outside Europe Condition :- Excellent, with no dents or splits and no loss to the gilding. Hallmarks :- Unmarked (not unusual with small scent bottle lids. Tests as silver). There is a registration mark RD No 94521, allowing accurate dating. Date :- 1884. Height :- 6.5 cms. Diameter :- 5 cms. Depth :- 2 cms.
