Description

This is a pair of antique doe bookends. An English, spelter bronze and marble decorative deer book rest, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910. Charming animal subjects upon quality plinth bases. Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order. Spelter bronze deer figures present good fur detail and endearing faces. Striking black marble with appealing white and gold vein interest. Dressed to the base with emerald green protective baize. This is a sweet pair of vintage doe bookends, with wonderfully crafted figures and plinths. Delivered ready for the home.
