

SA1047397

A Reclining Nude by A * C * D Houston. Oil on Canvas

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA1047397*Date of manufacture: 1950

Dimensions

Height = 67.5 cm (26.6")

Width = 77 cm (30.3")

Description

Signed with initials and dated 1951, oil on canvas ----- Aubrey Claud Davidson-Houston Painter and draughtsman, born in Dublin Ireland 1906 (died 1995) into a military family. He attended Royal Military College, Sandhurst, and was a regular soldier for 23 years, always interested in art. While a prisoner of war in Germany for five years made drawings of 600 fellow-prisoners. Upon retirement in 1949 Davidson-Houston studied at Slade School of Fine Art with William Coldstream for three years. Attended St Martin's School of Art part-time and worked for a time with Sir Gerald Kelly. Davidson-Houston was noted as a portrait painter, exhibiting at RP, NS, RCamA, RSA and at Paris Salon. Had a solo show at Walker's Galleries. HRH The Duke of Edinburgh was among his subjects and his works are held by several members of the royal family. Lived in Esher, Surrey, with a studio in London.

Internal Ref: 22112

Seller Details

Kendall House Antiques Ltd.

Kendall House High Street Chipping Campden Gloucestershire GL55
6AG 7 United Kingdom

Tel: 07880 602715

International Tel: +44 7880 602715

