Description

A lovely antique oak stationery cabinet dating from the late 19th / early 20th Century. It has a lovely patina with a sloped front and brass escutcheon. It comes with its original working key. The doors open out to reveal a series of racks for holding papers and letters. There is also a pen tray, and a brass topped glass inkwell. Below this is a large drawer with a brass handle. It is in good condition and is certainly a very usable piece. There are a few small knocks and marks around the outside and some general signs of age and use but nothing detrimental. It has been lightly cleaned and polished and displays beautifully. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
