Description

Antique Edwardian Upholstered Tub Chair. A comfortable and timeless chair. We are offering for sale this lovely condition Late Victorian to Edwardian (circa 1890) upholstered tub chair. This fine chair is made from solid Walnut featuring a timeless tub shape with pierced highly carved back supports, reeded scroll carved arm supports and finishing to turned front legs which stand on its 2 original ferruled solid polished brass castors on black porcelain wheels. The chair is complete with its original French polished finish in fantastic original condition with the idillic rich Walnut Colour. This chair has been re-upholstered to a very high standard in a material very similar to what it would have originally. We estimate that this re-cover was done in the 1950's so is vintage in itself. The material is a traditional tapestry depicting a floral scene and is very clean without wear or marks. We have just vacuum cleaned the upholstery, cleaned and waxed the Walnut frame. The material could be left as it because of its fantastic condition (from a smoke and pet free house) or it could be fully upholstered to your taste if it would not suit decor as is. We would be able to quo...
