Description

Victorian walnut double pier cabinet This Victorian walnut double pier cabinet is of exhibition quality and was made circa 1860. It is made in 2 parts, the top section that is the glazed section fitted for display. It has a single door that opens to allow access to the lined shelves and has a mirrored back, to reflect light. To each side of the door are superb cast gilt brass mounts. The base that has a single door with the sevres style plaque at the centre that is inset with the fine cast brass mount. A fine cast brass moulding The cabinetmaker used the finest burr walnut, also cast gilt brass mounts are running around the panel. A cabinet like this would have only been made in a very small quantity, it may even been a special order. Please do not confuse this with the usual pier cabinets you will see, this is one of the finest made. Imagine owning this and the pleasure it will give you as well as being a wonderful cabinet to display your special items. 67.5cms wide 26 1/2ins 37cms deep 14 1/2ins 150cms high 59ins All Measurements are as accurate as possible.
