Description

A Louis Icart (1888-1950) Signed Etching - Two Women Overlooking Paris - a wonderful etching of a good size by artist with hand colouring to lips (red) and other highlights signed by Louis Icart c1920. Louis Icart was a French painter best known for painting glamorous and erotic women. He studied painting, printmaking, and drawing in 1907 when he moved to Paris. Born on the 9th of December, 1888, in Toulouse, Icart was a popular figure during the Art Deco period during the 1920s and 1930s. He passed away on the 20th of December, 1950 at his Paris home. Louis Icart's works have been distributed in the USA during the 1920s and 1940s. In 1912, Icart had a solo exhibition in Paris, and Brussels in 1913. He received the Chevalier of the Légion d'Honneur in 1927. Icart's first American exhibition was in 1922 at New York's Belmaison Gallery.
