Description

This early-20th-century oil painting by German artist Ernst Ludwig Von Aster (1902-1986) depicts a picturesque autumnal landscape in the forest at Webicht, Weimar. Ernst Ludwig Von Aster was predominantly known for scenes with animals traditionally associated with hunting. His style was broadly traditional and underpinned by accomplished draughtsmanship. He hailed from the historic mountain town of Goslar and trained in both Weimar and Berlin. Here, he's captured a view at Webicht, which was popular for painters due to its seasonal changes, diversity and seclusion. An atmospheric crescent moon peeks through feathery branches. Beautiful. Signed in the lower left and framed. Learn more about Ernst Ludwig Von Aster in our directory. Medium: Oil on board Overall size: 16" x 17" / 36cm x 43cm Year of creation: 1922 Labels & Inscriptions: Inscribed and dated on the reverse. Studio stamped. Provenance: Private collection, Germany. Condition: Artwork presents well. Frame with some wear, which we've left for decorative reasons.
