Description

This is a very unusual and rare late 18th early 19th century pine settle with fold down table. Great patina and wear all over. Full of character and originality. Makes the ideal talking point in any home. I love the simplicity of the design and it works so well making a unique kitchen seat or hall bench. There are signs of old worm but all treated and no longer active. The construction is very good and solid. Just a lovely piece of country furniture.
