Description

George III Irish mahogany tallboy This George III Irish mahogany tallboy was made circa 1790. Irish tallboys are set apart from the British chest on chests of the period as they are made in one piece and so don't flare out at the waist. This magnificent Irish tallboy has the 7 graduated drawers all fitted with the original pierced brass handles and lock plates. Having the dog tooth feature around the flared cornice and stands on the shaped bracket feet. These tallboys can be used in most areas of a home, and of course provide wonderful storage with no wasted space. A flight of drawers is always attractive to the eye and this is no exception, imagine it in your home and the pleasure you will have and how much you can put into its ample drawer space. 102cms wide across cornice 40ins 56cms deep 22ins 172cms high 67 1/2ins All Measurements are as accurate as possible.
