Description

A 19th century bow fronted bedside cabinet or nightstand made from beautifully figured flame mahogany, with a small drawer at the top and a cupboard below. The cabinet stands on slender turned legs and retains its original drawer knob and turn latch on the cupboard door. Condition: There are a few areas of damage/repair to veneer on the front of the cabinet, and there is a split on one side (which is stable). Overall a nice little cabinet in good condition. Delivery of furniture usually takes between 7 and 21 days from order, though can sometimes take longer.
